Using Law, Policy, and Research to Improve the Public's Health A NATIONAL CONFERENCE

SEPTEMBER 13-15, 2010

Loews Atlanta Hotel
Atlanta, Georgia

CONFERENCE GOALS

The goals of this conference are to (1) examine the role of law and policy in promoting, protecting, and improving global and domestic public health; and (2) help build effective partnerships to accomplish public health law and policy objectives.

CONFERENCE CONTENT

In addition to plenary and training sessions, an array of concurrent sessions during the conference are designed to address the major themes in communicable and chronic disease prevention and control (including lessons learned from H1N1 influenza); global, national, tribal, state, and local health law and policy; research in public health law and policy, relationships among public and private partners, and critical, emerging issues.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This conference is intended for international, national, state, tribal, and local individuals who are:

- Elected and appointed officials involved in creating or enforcing international or domestic public health laws;
- Public health practitioners and legal counsel in the public sector;
- Lawyers in the private sector who represent health care providers, health advocacy organizations, or other clients that may have significant interests in the public's health;
- Physicians, nurses, and other health care workers in public health and clinical practices;
- Judges, clerks, and their staffs active in public health and health care issues;
- Scholars, educators, researchers, and students with focus areas in health care, public health science or practice, or public health law, ethics, or policy; or
- Persons interested in the use of law as a tool for improving the public's health.

CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDITS

CME & CLE credits will be available to conference participants.

CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION UNITS

Accreditation

The American Society of Law, Medicine & Ethics is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians. This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies of the ACCME.

CME Credits

ASLME designates this educational activity for a maximum of 12 credits AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s). Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Disclosure

To ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in this educational program, all faculty are required to disclose to the program audiences any association or apparent conflict(s) of interest that might be related to the content of their presentations.

CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION UNITS

ASLME is an accredited sponsor of continuing legal education programs according to the regulations of the states of AR, CA, GA, IN, IA, MS, MO, NV, NM, NC, PA, RI, SC, VA, WA and WV. Under the NYS CLE Board "approved jurisdiction procedures", ASLME is permitted to provide CLE credits in NY. ASLME routinely applies to various other states. Attorneys desiring accreditation must notify ASLME upon registering for the conference and must indicate for which state they are seeking credit.

ABOUT THE SPONSORS

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF LAW, MEDICINE & ETHICS (ASLME)

Where Multidisciplinary Education Improves Practice®

ASLME is a non-profit multidisciplinary educational association whose mission is to provide high-quality scholarship, debate, and critical thought for the community of professionals at the intersection of law, medicine, health care, policy, and ethics. ASLME provides a dynamic forum for its members to engage in a valuable exchange of ideas from a wide range of perspectives. ASLME achieves this goal through two nationally acclaimed journals, the American Journal of Law & Medicine and the Journal of Law, Medicine & Ethics, and by holding national symposia on topics of interest to its membership. ASLME is located in Boston, Massachusetts. Please visit www.aslme.org for more information.

PUBLIC HEALTH LAW ASSOCIATION (PHLA)

Promoting healthy people and healthy communities through dialogue, partnerships, education, and research in public health law and policy. Founded in 2003 as non-profit, membership organization, PHLA is for everyone who shapes, uses, teaches, studies or conducts research in the highly dynamic field of public health law and policy. Law is fundamental to the origin, understanding, and delivery of public health services. Law improves the likelihood that citizens nationally and globally can lead healthy, long, and productive lives. Better understanding of the law, government, policy-making processes, and the role of attorneys together with public health practitioners can improve the public's health.

ROBERT WOOD JOHNSON FOUNDATION

The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation focuses on the pressing health and health care issues facing our country. As the nation's largest philanthropy devoted exclusively to improving the health and health care of all Americans, we work with a diverse group of organizations and individuals to identify solutions and achieve comprehensive, meaningful and timely change.

For more than 35 years we've brought experience, commitment and a rigorous, balanced approach to the problems that affect the health and health care of those we serve. When it comes to helping Americans lead healthier lives and get the care they need, we expect to make a difference in your lifetime.
